

Peninsula Art Academy presents:

Painting the White House

with Nicki Lanzi, instructor
440-526-1614, island1785@aol.com

Where:

Peninsula Art Academy, 1600 West Mill Street, Peninsula, Ohio 44264. Parking is behind "Elements Gallery", directly across the street.

When:

This one-day workshop will be held Saturday, October 16, 2010, from 10am, until 3pm.

Workshop Description:

Is a white house, white??? Learn how to paint a white house and all of the reflective color surrounding it. This class is about reflective color and how it affects white objects. Bring in a photo of a white cottage, simple Victorian, or interesting house, with flowers or colorful surroundings. I will bring in pictures also to share. The simple step of introducing reflective light into your painting will make a world of difference!

Bring in your current supplies, any medium, and also bring a bag lunch or order locally. Canvas or paper is fine.

Please register one week before class.
